Philosophy Works

Jobs come and go, physical beauty fades. Even close relationships can end. But the benefits of philosophy last a lifetime.

Our 10-week introductory course offers time-tested principles that lead to freedom and sustainable happiness. Gain tools for living life more consciously, and fully develop the power of attention to realize your potential.

For the Spring term starting the week of April 12, 2021, the fee for Philosophy Works Introductory Course is waived as a gift to the community.

What students are saying

Follow your bliss
and the universe will open doors where there were only walls.

—Joseph Campbell
